GARLUM

Garlic Extract 200 mg
Soft Gelatin Lozenges

Mouth dissolving lozenge containing 200 mg Garlic Extract

- Garlic contains sulphur containing compounds like allicin, one of the most beneficial high blood pressure natural remedies.
- Garlic has the potential to lower BP in hypertensive individuals similarly to standard BP medication, via biologically plausible mechanisms of action.
(<https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pmc/articles/MC4266250/>)
- Garlic is effective in reducing total serum cholesterol by 17 ± 6 mg/dL and low-density lipoprotein cholesterol by 9 ± 6 mg/dL in individuals with elevated total cholesterol levels (>200 mg/dL), provided garlic is used for longer than 2 months.
